

Privacy Policy

At Datava, we respect and protect the privacy of our website visitors. This privacy policy outlines how we collect, use, and protect the information you provide through our contact form and other interactions with our website.

1. Information We Collect

When you submit a contact form on our website, we may collect the following information:

- Personal Information: Your name, email address, phone number, company name, job title, and any additional information you provide in the message field.
- Non-Personal Information: Data that cannot be used to personally identify you, such as browser type, IP address, and general website usage patterns (collected through cookies and analytics tools).

2. How We Use Your Information

We use the information you provide to:

- Respond to your inquiries or provide the requested services.
- Improve our website and user experience based on your feedback.
- Communicate with you about relevant updates, services, and products.
- Maintain and enhance our relationship with you.

3. Sharing Your Information

We do not sell, trade, or rent your personal information to third parties. We may share your information with trusted service providers (e.g., hosting providers, CRM systems) to help us operate our business or provide services, but they are required to keep your information confidential and secure.

In compliance with applicable law, we may disclose your personal information if necessary to:

- Comply with legal obligations or government requests.
- Protect our rights, property, or the safety of Datava, our users, or the public.

4. Data Security

We take reasonable technical, administrative, and physical security measures to protect the information you provide through our website from unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction.

5. Your Rights and Choices

You have the right to:

- Request access to the personal information we have collected about you.
- Request that we correct or delete your personal information.
- Opt-out of receiving marketing communications from us at any time by following the unsubscribe link in our emails or contacting us directly.

6. Cookies and Tracking

We may use cookies and similar tracking technologies to enhance your experience on our website, analyze usage patterns, and deliver personalized content. You can control or disable cookies through your browser settings, but this may limit your use of certain website features.

7. Third-Party Links

Our website may contain links to other websites or services that are not owned or controlled by Datava. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these third-party websites, and we encourage you to review their privacy policies.

8. Changes to This Policy

We may update this privacy policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or legal obligations. We will notify you of any material changes by posting the updated policy on our website, with the revised effective date.
